

XC Weekend at Gibbes Farm

February 20-21, 2010

Chris Hitchcock will be meeting with any interested students for a 2-day XC school at the Gibbes Farm in St. Matthews, SC (near Columbia). For those unaware, Gibbes Farm is the Disneyworld of XC schooling facilities and will be a great opportunity to jumpstart your Spring season with two days of practice over great jumps on reliable sandy footing. Most of the jumps at Gibbes farm are ideal for students Novice and above, but all levels are welcome. Stabling is available and there are hotels close by.

Lessons are $110 for both days or $60/day.

XC fee is $35/horse. Please RSVP with Chris by Feb 10.
