

CVACTA Board meeting 8/28

- Meeting called to order with by club president Hollyn Mangione. Also in attendance Gina Sybert, Megan Proffitt, Pat Albertson, Wendy Schmidt and Kelly Yeong.
- Treasurer's report reviewed – Current Balance $2,369.22
- Hunter Pace was a great success - lots of fun and riders. Money earned $7. Goal had been to break even.
- Membership review – approximately 5 new members. Total members at 65
- Flyers being distributed for Tuckahoe Plantation Combined Test.
- Discussion of possible upcoming fall event. Hunter Trials hosted by CVACTA at Campbell Springs Farm. Tentative date discussed for the weekend of 11/15-11/16. Planning started for needs including judge, setting the courses, making maps, registration forms, classes to be set including a hunt club team challenge.
- Upcoming events reviewed: Aria set for October, Stadium Jumping Clinic for 11/29 at Oakdale Farm with Pat Leins as trainer. Cost is $50/person. Maximum number of riders is 4 per group. Groups will be arranged by level: Intro, Beginner Novice, Novice, and Training.
- September meeting set for discussion on “hay.” Members will be encouraged to bring a bag of hay for evaluation.
- The Bylaws Committee has met and stated that a rough draft would be forthcoming. Committee will review first. Once approved by the committee, the bylaws will be emailed to the board. After the email, the bylaws will then be discussed at the next board meeting with a final presentation to the club to follow.
- Meeting adjourned